Natalia is a young specialist who adequately demonstrated her organizational skills by leading the business incubator of Ceadir-Lunga. At the age of 18 Natalia started her studies in Russia, where she graduated as an economist and also received a bachelor's degree in management. When she returned to Gagauzia, she started as a technical director in the business incubator. In 2014 she became the head of the business incubator which provides opportunities for active youth to realize their own ideas and build their future.
