Working Group «Social Infrastructure»

In broad direction of social infrastructure, we have choose a very important institution, in our opinion, the institution of the family and the child. Children are the most vulnerable part of our society. Namely the protection of children's rights and the support of young parents should become a priority in the development of Gagauzia.

Our main goal is to discuss issues of social infrastructure and to present real and concrete solutions for these problems. It's very important to understand and to see final goal

Based on the materials provided by expert, the main goal for the 4 sessions of the working group "Social Infrastructure" is to develop a Programm for the development of family, as a social institution.

Agenda of the session
