Working Group «Youth and Sport»

Previous sessions, coordinated by local expert Natalia Cojocar, were aimed at developing a strategy of youth development and sports and the development of a detailed action plan. The experts approved a draft strategy and evaluated its profitability from the point of view of the European Union.

Main aim of the last, fourth WG session is to present and discuss the final version of Strategic action plan for the development of youth sphere, developed by local and Slovak expert and based on proposals and conclusions from the participants of the previous session. Slovak expert, Ms Štefančíková will share her experience in the control of public institutions in implementing this kind of action plan.

All relevant stakeholders participated in the WG sessions will have the opportunity to adopt final proposals and recommendations to be implemented in the Strategic plan. Final session of WG Youth and Sport will also serve as an evaluating session, where participants will assess and summarize the work of the session.

Agenda of the session

- Presentation of the strategic plan (current version).
- Presentation of the action plan as an annex to the strategic action plan.
- Methods, tools applicable in the EU to control the implementation of the strategic action plan.

Natalia Cojocar

Manager-administrator of Business-incubator, Cheadir-Lunga

Natalia is a young specialist who adequately demonstrated her organizational skills, leading the business incubator of Ceadir-Lunga. At the age of 18 Natalia went Russia, where she received her education as an engineer-economist and a bachelor's degree in management. When she returned to Gagauzia, she held the position of technical director in the organization, then in 2014 she became the head of the business incubator, providing youth to realize their ideas and build their future.

Aspiration to ensure the work capacity and self-realization of youth in the sphere of small and medium business motivates Natalia to do her work.

Soňa Štefančíková

Soňa Štefančíková is currently working at IUVENTA - the Slovak Youth Institute (state institution directly managed by the Ministry of Education, Science, Research and Sport of the Slovak Republic), as a Regional youth work coordinator for the Prešov Region.

Since high school, she has been actively interested in her surroundings, environment, human rights, volunteering and youth politics. She studied International relations and diplomacy at the Faculty of Political Science and International Relations at Matej Bel University in Banská Bystrica.

She has been actively working with youth in non-governmental sector since 2012 as a project manager, soft skills lector and project coordinator during her 5 years presidency in the civic association - Youth Council of Prešov Region.

As an eternal volunteer and activist, she is interested in acting around her and in her leisure time she organizes various community and sports-cultural events within the city of Prešov.
